Paul McCartney has signed a worldwide recording agreement with Capitol Records, it was announced on August 17, 2016, by Capitol Music Group (CMG) Chairman & CEO Steve Barnett. 'This is genuinely exciting for me,' McCartney said. This historic contract encompasses McCartney's entire body of post-Beatles work, from his 1970 McCartney album, through his decade with Wings, to the dozens of solo and collaborative works that have continually reaffirmed his standing as the most popular, influential and acclaimed artist in the history of recorded music.

In a career that spans six decades, McCartney has sold more than 500 million records worldwide. He was recently named the United Kingdom's most successful albums artist of all time by the Official Albums Chart Company and was knighted by Queen Elizabeth II in 1997 for his services to music.

Paul McCartney is the recipient of countless accolades and awards. He is a 21-time Grammy winner, two-time inductee into the Rock And Roll Hall of Fame, an Academy Award winner and honoree of the prestigious Kennedy Center Honors, the Gershwin Prize for Popular Song and France's Légion d'Honneur.

McCartney is currently working on a new studio album, while a comprehensive plan for the artist's catalogue is being conceived by Capitol and Universal Music Enterprises (UME) "" in conjunction with the artist and his management team "" and will be implemented beginning July 2017. The catalogue moves to Capitol/UME from Concord, Paul's previous label partner on such Grammy-winning albums as 'Band On The Run' (Best Historical Album, 2012), 'Kisses On The Bottom' (Best Traditional Pop Vocal Album, 2013) and 'Wings Over America' (Best Boxed or Special Limited Edition Package, 2014).
